Application Submission Criteria

APPLICANT MUST MEET THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA:

- High school seniors whose parent's permanent residence is within a 100-mile radius of Roanoke.
- Applicant must have been accepted, or expect acceptance into a post-secondary educational art's program for the 2009 fall semester as a full-time student. (See listing below)
- Planning further study with a MINOR or MAJOR in the fine arts: MUSIC, DANCE, THEATER, SCULPTURE, PAINTING, PHOTOGRAPHY, DRAWING (no graphic/computer art majors)

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: Application deadline is April 2, 2010. Prior winners of Festival Scholarships are not eligible. The application must be accompanied by the following:

1. A maximum of two recommendations, one of which must be from a teacher, instructor or other professional in the arts. The recommendation should include at least the following information:
 - a. What is the student's potential for future creative expression?
 - b. What is the student's level of performance up to this point in their career?
 - c. Does student work at "expected" level or work beyond requested level?
 - d. Does student complete work in a timely fashion or if not, why?
 - e. Your perception of the student's artistic ability.
2. Student should submit examples of their work in the area of interest/ability. These may include DVDs, video or cassette tapes, list of stage performances, slides or actual drawings, or paintings. Limit submissions to ten pieces of work or slides. Each piece of work must be labeled with the applicant's name (including each slide). Videotapes should include five minutes of recent work and recorded on clean, high-quality tape. Video and audio tapes should be queued to the specific part you wish the judges to view or hear. In a crowded scene, please identify yourself. All slides should be marked as to direction and accompanied by a sheet that lists the size and title of the work. All art work should be dated and identified and noted if it was a class project, etc. All work submitted should be the original or a slide - no computer print outs. Computer generated or enhanced work will not be reviewed. Standard size DVDs can be used for paintings, sculpture and other artwork that might be on a larger scale. All work submitted digitally must be in tif, gif, or bmp formats. No esp or Power Point. For more information on how to transfer photos of work being submitted by DVD in MPEG-2 format here is a helpful website to refer to: <http://www.dvd-photo-slideshow.com>
3. Musicians submitting original compositions must submit both the written score and a recording of the music, stating who is performing the piece. The composer does not have to be performing the music, unless he/ she wants to be judged as both a performer and composer.
4. Past applicants to this scholarship who have not won in any category may submit a new application. Works previously judged for this scholarship must not be included in the new application.
5. Proof of full time acceptance into a college, institute or apprenticeship program in the arts prior to award presentation.
6. High School transcripts are not necessary and will not be taken into consideration.

Completed applications should be mailed to Attention: Amanda Gaylor, EventZone; 115 Day Ave., Roanoke VA. 24016. Important: A self-addressed stamped envelope (same amount of postage used to mail it) should also be included in your packet so your materials can be returned after judging. To hand-deliver application, call the EventZone office at 540/342-2640 X223 to make arrangements. NOTIFICATION AND PAYMENT OF AWARDS: Notification to all scholarship recipients will be made by May 15 via letter or phone call. Payment of awards will be made directly to the college, institute or apprenticeship program after satisfactory proof of acceptance. The awards may be used to defray expenses of tuition, housing, books, or supplies, etc.
